

Content VocabularyLESSON 2*Climate Cycles

Directions: Each of the sentences below is false. Make the sentence true by replacing the underlined word(s) with a term from the list below. Write your changes on the lines provided.

drought
monsoon

El Niño/Southern Oscillation phenomenon

ice age revolution

interglacial

- _____ 1. A(n) heat wave occurs when below-average precipitation occurs.
- _____ 2. A warm period that occurs during an ice age is called a(n) drought.
- _____ 3. Revolution affects climate change.
- _____ 4. One interglacial of Earth occurs once about every 365 days.
- _____ 5. A(n) phenomenon is a cold period that lasts hundreds to millions of years.
- _____ 6. A(n) ice age is a wind circulation pattern that changes directions with the seasons.
- _____ 7. A revolution is defined as “an observable fact or event.”